

Enhancing OSU College of Engineering Information Access with AI

The Problem

- Students and Faculty need a more efficient way to get College of Engineering questions answered without all the troublesome navigation.

Our Solution

- LLM-powered chatbot for natural language Q&A.
- A web scraper that keeps the knowledge base up to date by pulling content from OSU Engineering domains.
- Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) helps find and summarize the most relevant information—fast.

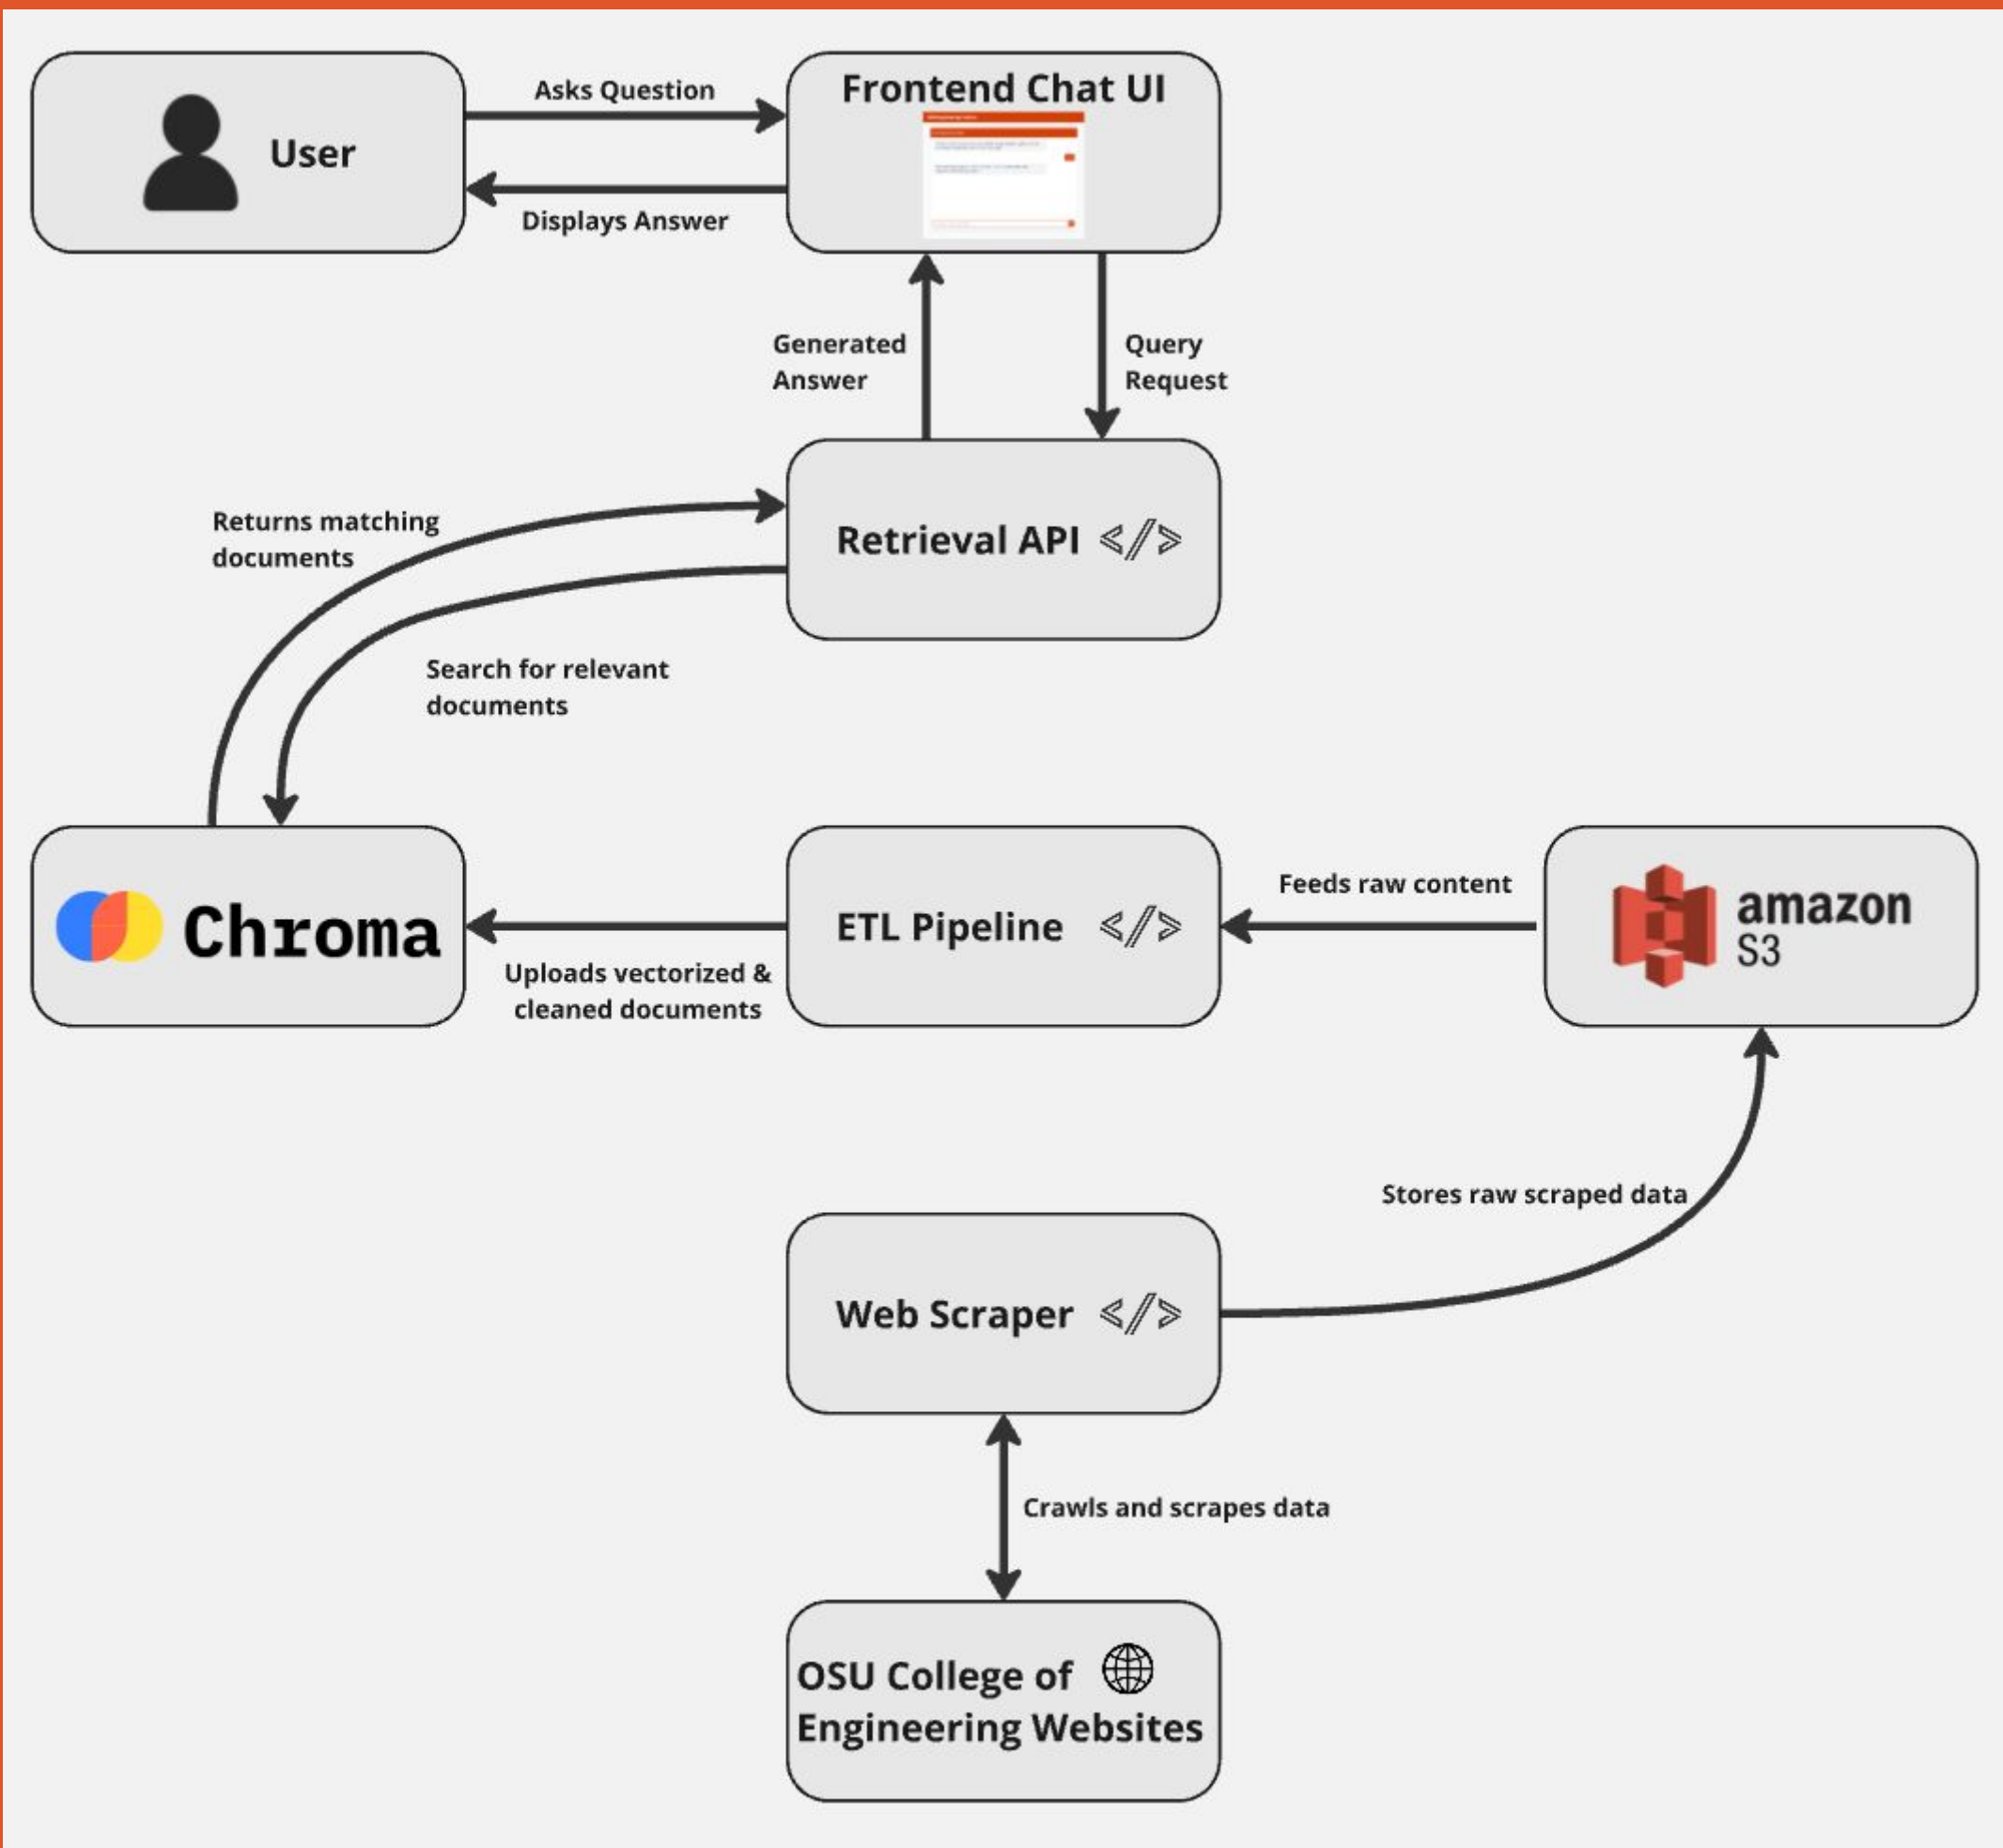

Figure 1: High-level overview of our system architecture

LLM Agents on the Edge

A Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) System for Fast and Accurate Information

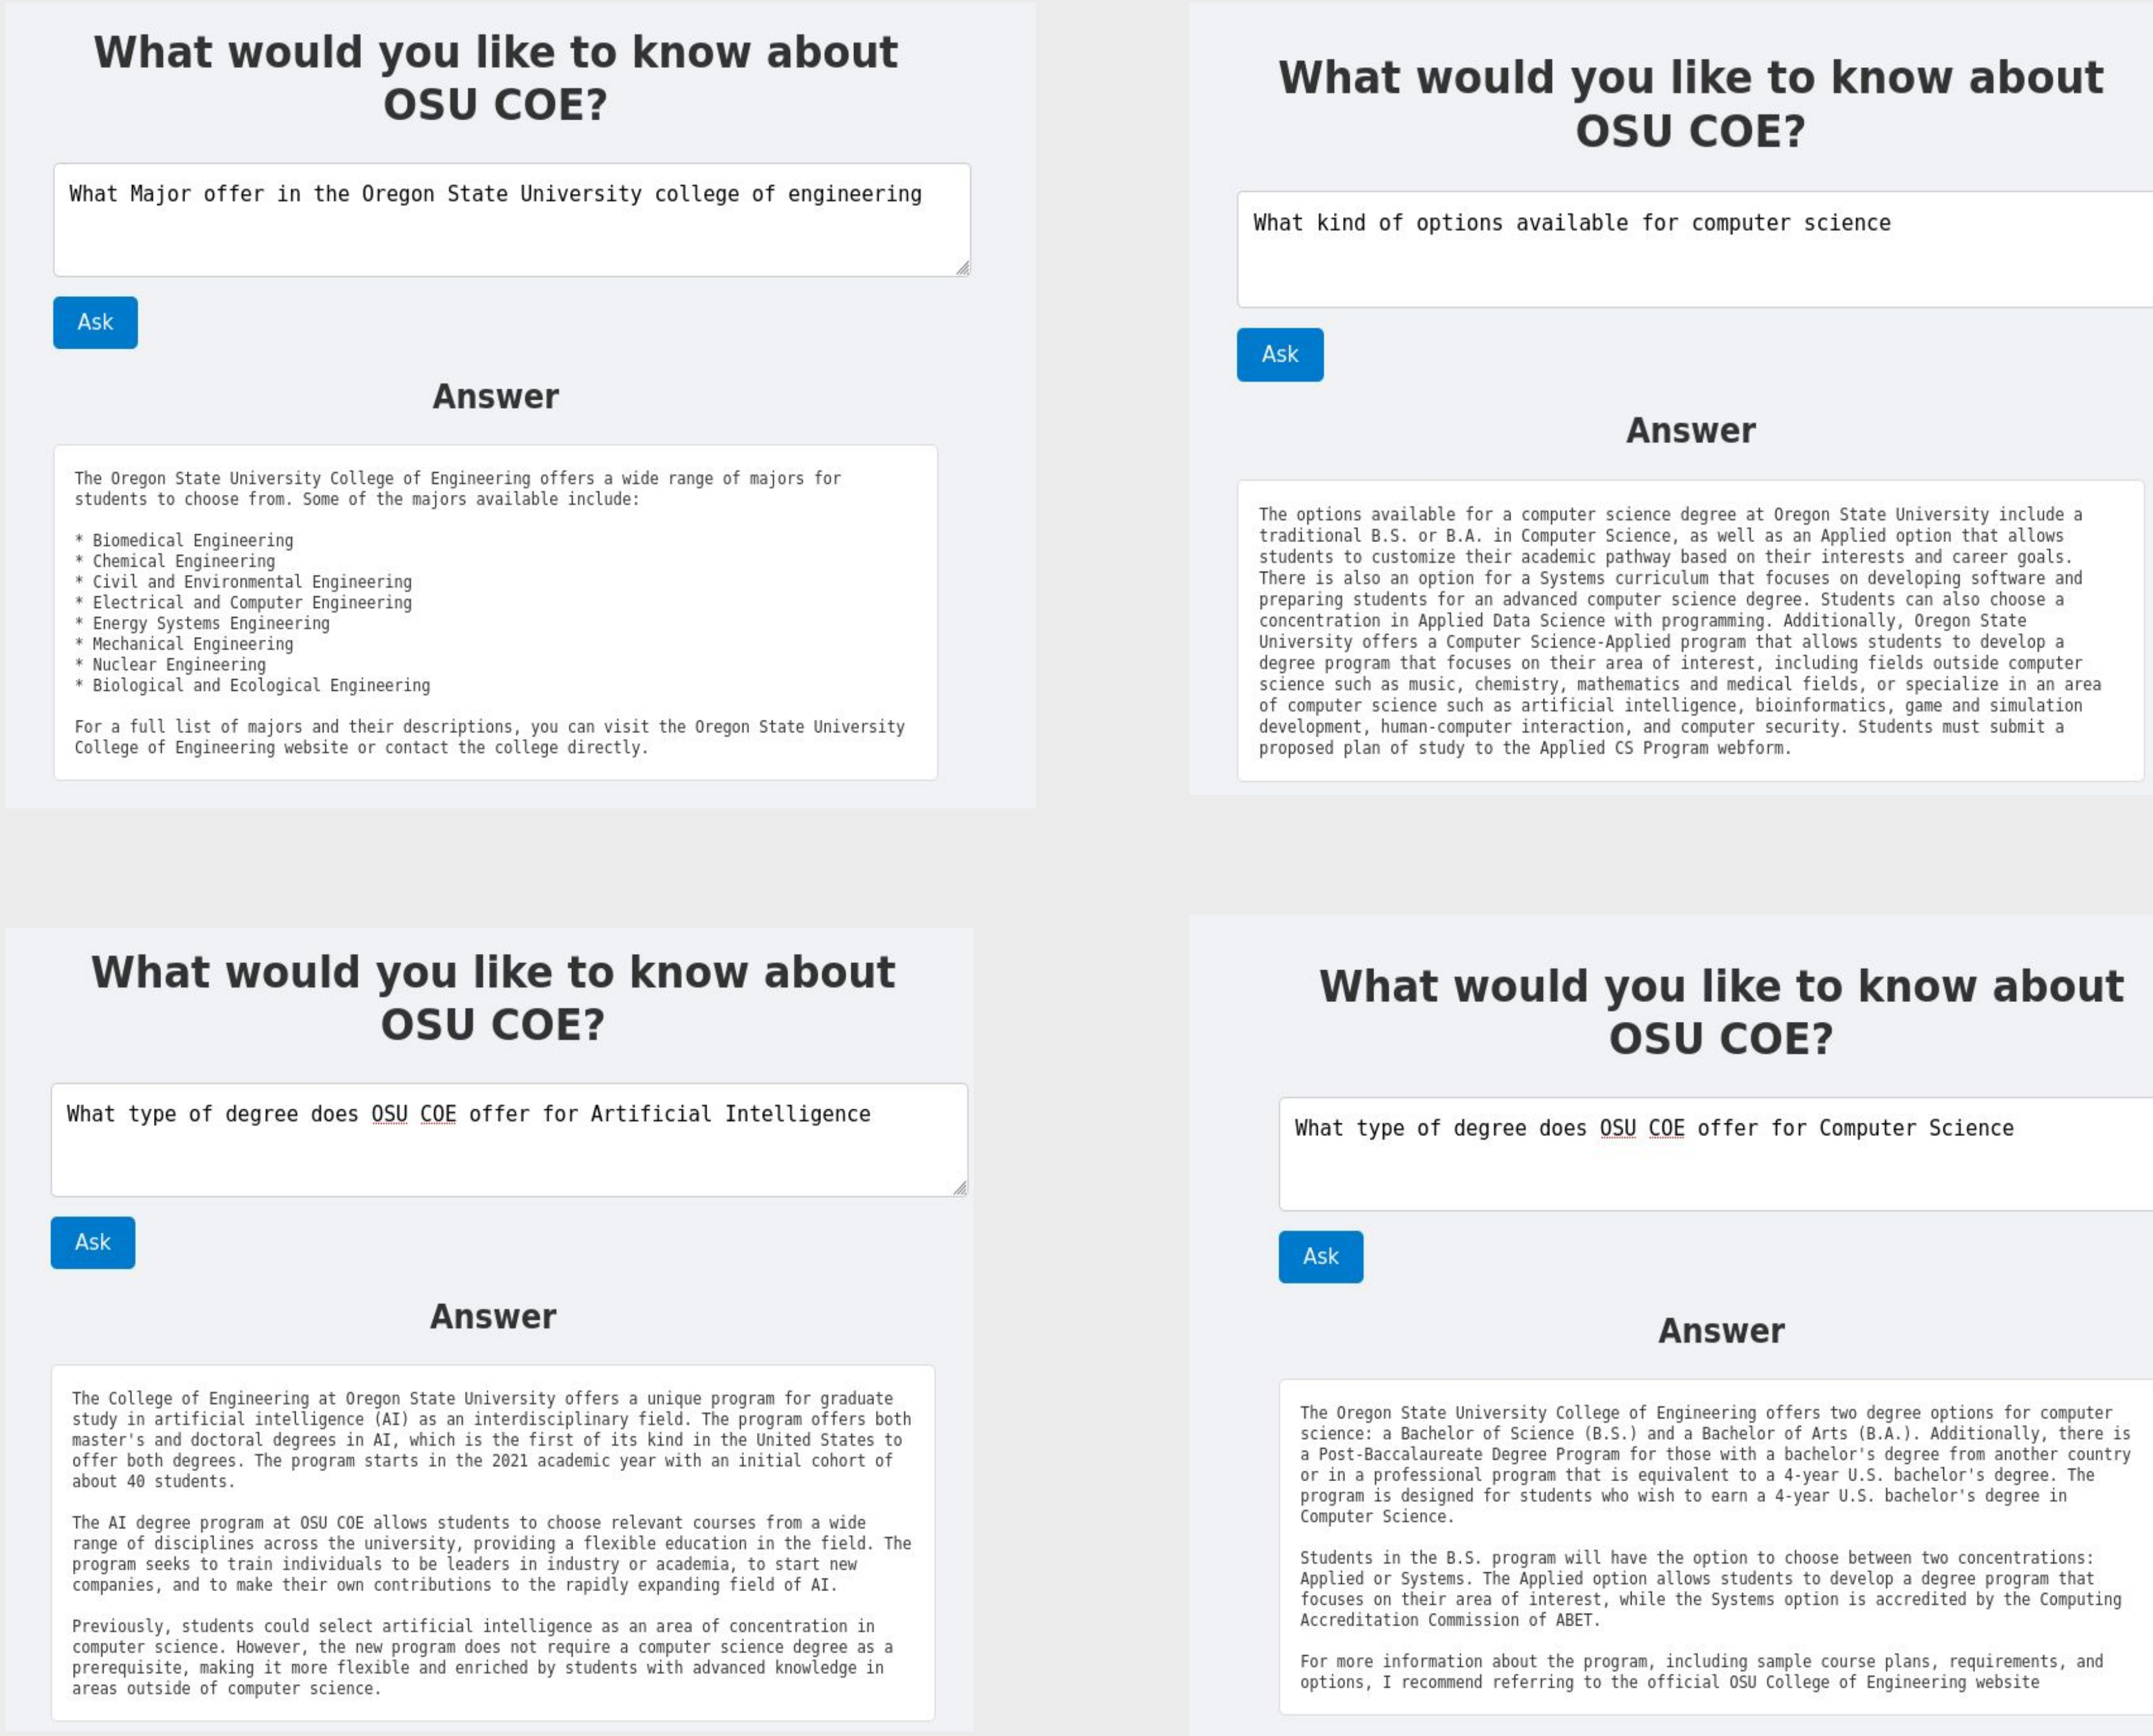

Figure 2: Image of our chatbots user interface.

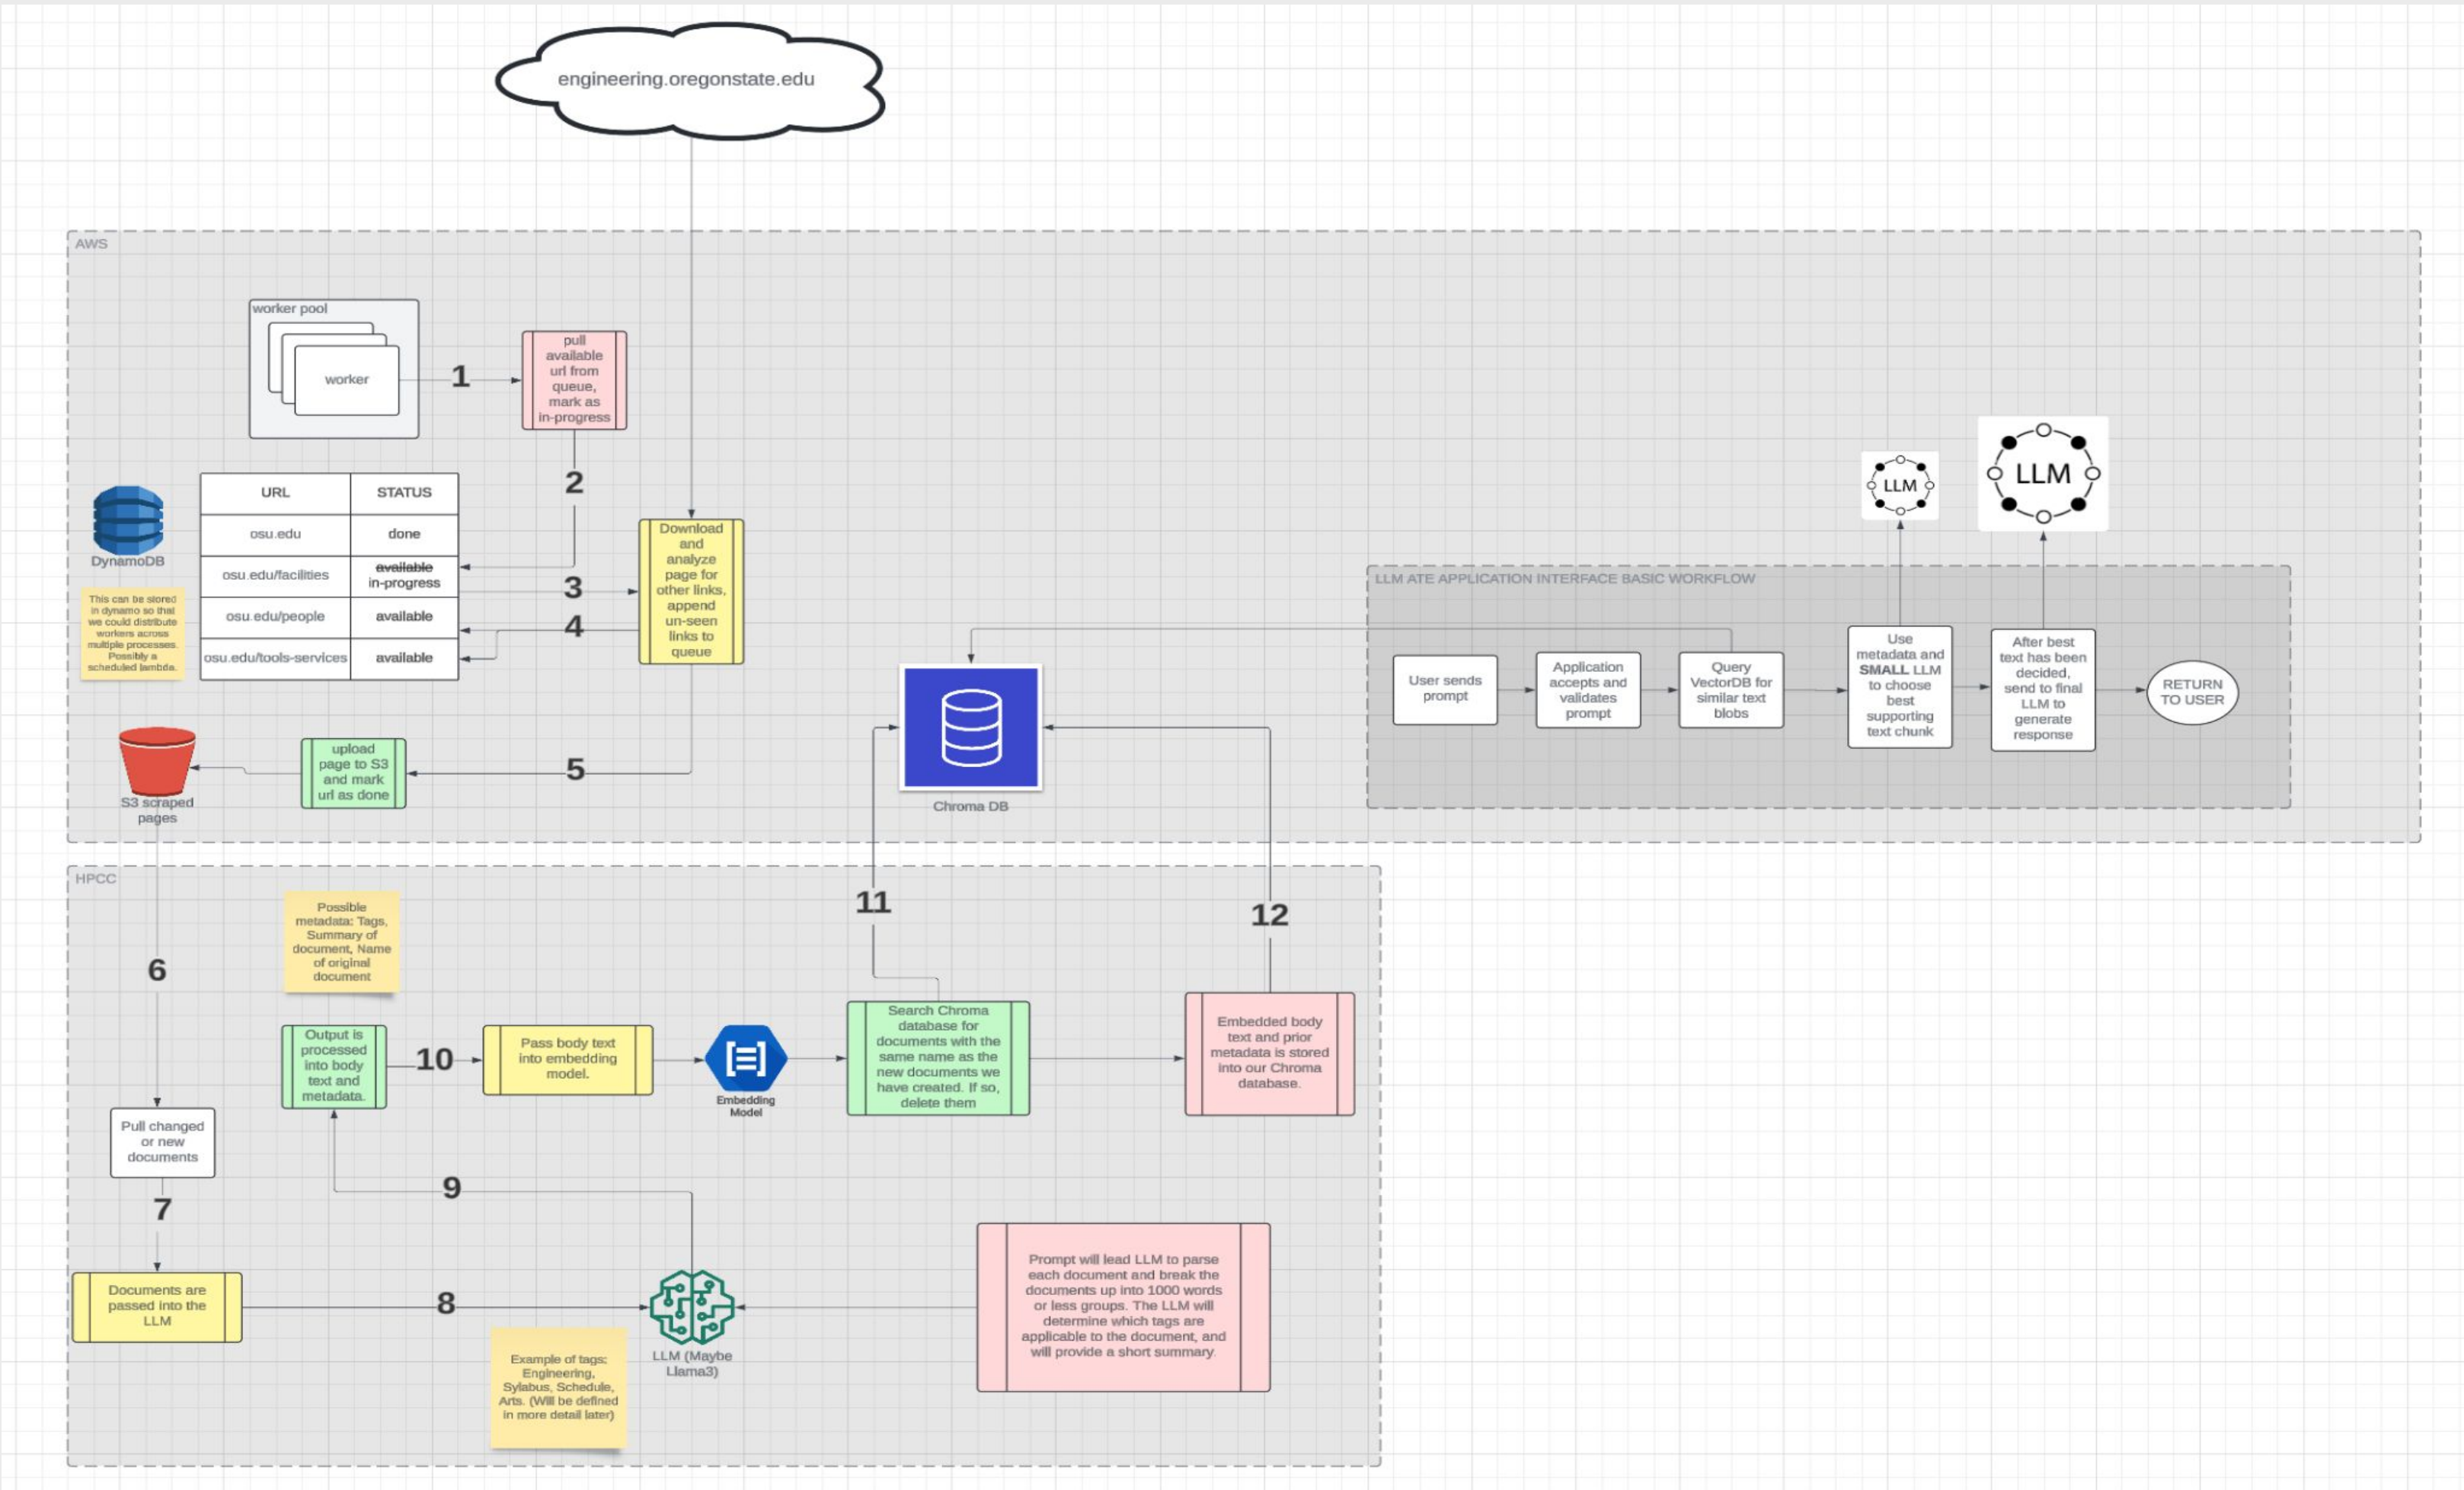

Figure 3: Image describing the process flow and interaction between all three subteams.

Data scraping

Varun Bhat
bhatv@oregonstate.edu

Nathan Levites
levitesn@oregonstate.edu

Hao Zhu
zhuh2@oregonstate.edu

ETL (Extract, Transform, Load)

Blaise Skoletsky
skoletsb@oregonstate.edu

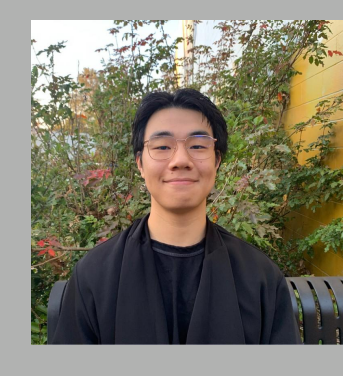

Mithun Karthikeyan
karthikm@oregonstate.edu

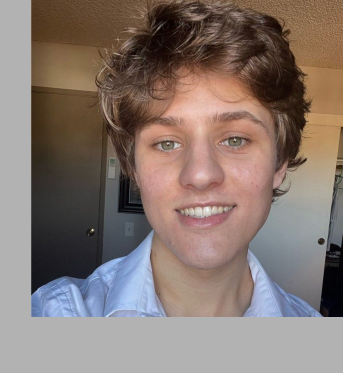

Felix Moren
morenf@oregonstate.edu

Retrieval

Hao Jun Chen
chenhaoj@oregonstate.edu

Joshua Spisak
spisakj@oregonstate.edu

Mozu Ngo
ngomo@oregonstate.edu

